

NFP AND K-12 IMPACT SERIES

May 1, 2024

CPE Information

Join our team to hear some important topics on the minds of not-for-profit leaders. Brown Edwards Director, David Sheaffer will provide a session to assist your team in determining and evaluating the key measures of program success. You will also learn about the importance of and opportunities for revenue diversification. Ron Hoch, Head of Redeemer Classical School will share his insights into fiduciary responsibilities of not-for-profit leaders.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify measures to evaluate current programs for their impact and success
- Understand how to address results of programmatic evaluation
- Discover the importance of revenue diversification and identify alternative opportunities
- Recognize responsibilities of organizational leaders in their fiduciary capacity and what you should be doing in your organization

Prerequisites: Basic knowledge of not-for-profit/k-12 industry

Advanced preparations: None

Program level: Update

Delivery method: Group Internet Based

CPE credits (2 hours):

- Business Management & Organization - 2 hrs.

No Fee. For more information regarding complaint and program cancellation policies, please contact thicks@becpas.com.